Declaration of NON-GMO Statement

*We, at Nature*4*Science, do not support the concept of GMO's, and will not knowingly handle and/or promote ingredients that contain GMO's (Genetically improved and/or genetically modified organisms). Therefore, our garlic "New-Gar™ brand is not descendent from genetically modified and/or genetically modified organisms. Our manufacturer has taken all possible measurements in the growing and shipping of the garlic in a non-GMO environment.*

As added insurance, samples of this year's crop,2011/2012, were tested by Isolating DNA from them, and target sequence CaMV355, NOS, NptII derived from GMO were not detected. Reference gene of the plant was used to measure the quality of the extracted DNA. Method Detection limit: 0.1%
